

TEACHING WITH TECHNOLOGY

Program

09:00 am	Welcome
09:15am	PhotoStory/Wikis	Fiona Watts	SoA Farm Planning
	Embedding multimedia digital stories into a wiki to provide quality resources for remote and flexible student access.
09.45 am	WebQuests/Blogging	Sally Delaney	Cert II General Vocational Education
	Use of a variety of internet-based activities to engage learners.
10.30 am	Blogs: 23 Things	Peter Shanks	e-Learning Mentor prog.
	Use of a blog to create and manage self-directed reflective learning activities.
11.00 am	Morning Tea
11.30 am	Wikis and Moodle	Kirsty Ford	Dip Media & Comms. Grad Cert Man'gt Comm
	Wiki-based activities for F2F teaching; and using Moodle to facilitate RPL for higher-level qualifications (an AFLN Innovations Project)
12.00 am	Adobe Connect	Ian Manchester	Dip Viticulture
	Web-conferencing for regular online lessons, discussions, resource delivery.
12.30 pm	Learning Activity Wizards (LAWs)	Catherine Stapleton	Cert II Conservation and Land Management
	Resources created with LAWs used as a group activity in the field with delivery via Ultra Mobile Personal Computers (UMPC's) in the field.
01.00 pm	Lunch
01.45 pm	Moodle	Kim McLean	Dip Bus. Administration
	A course management site for communications, content and assessment.
02.15 pm	iPods	Ian Manchester	Dip Viticulture
	Portable repository for delivering PowerPoints, photos, videos, podcasts; as well as enabling the recording of audio assessments and capability evidence.
02.30 pm	Videoconferencing	Karen Forrester	TVET Cert II Community Services-Children's Serv.
	Use of the Document Camera and DVD as tools to enhance VC delivery .
03.00 pm	Afternoon Tea
03:15 pm	SMARTBoards	Martin Whelan	Cert III Mechanical Eng. (Fitting & Machining)
	Enhancing F2F lessons with self-created and downloaded resources, and on-screen image manipulation techniques: all saved for future use and reference.
03:45 pm	Moblogging	Raelene Flower	Cert II and Cert IV Vet Nursing
	Embracing mobile technologies in the workplace as students provide visual evidence of workplace competence via their mobile phones.
04:15 pm	Wrap up
04:30pm	Finish		